ABOUT

At the young age of 22, Chris Wilson, aka Riot Ten, exploded into the world of electronic music with his unique blend of dubstep, hard trap, and electro. Signed to Steve Aoki's DIM MAK Records in 2017, with music out on Interscope, Never Say Die, Bassrush, and Rottun Recordings, Riot Ten's music has been supported and co-signed by the likes of DJ Snake, Porter Robinson, Zeds Dead, Excision, 12th Planet, The Chainsmokers, and more.

His 2017 single "Fuck It" topped the dubstep charts for consecutive months and became a staple on The Chainsmokers "Memories Do Not Open" tour. This cross-genre success ultimately paved the way for his dubstep smash "Rail Breaker" which became the headbangers anthem of 2017 and 2018 and has remained one of the most played out songs in the genre in recent history.

Following the release of "Rail Breaker," Riot Ten put out his debut EP "Hype Or Die: The Dead" in 2018 which recorded a top 10 debut on the iTunes "dance album" charts. He went on to release two more EPs in 2018 and 2019 and secured a presence inside Spotify's top electronic playlists, including Beast Mode, Hype, Dubstep Don, and others. As if that's not enough, Riot Ten released his debut 10 track album in the Summer of 2019 just before he embarked on a 45+ city headline tour across North America, Australia and New Zealand. Riot Ten has also made stops at major festivals like Coachella, EDC, Nocturnal Wonderland, Electric Zoo, Lost Lands, Sunset Music Festival, and many others.
